Case No. 18-cv-04417-BLF

ORDER DENYING EX PARTE
MOTION TO SHORTEN TIME FOR
FILING OF MOTION FOR DE NOVO
DETERMINATION OF DISPOSITIVE
MATTER REFERRED TO
MAGISTRATE JUDGE

[RE: ECF 28]

Plaintiff Nasstech, LLC ("Plaintiff") has filed an ex parte motion to shorten to 3 days the time in which Defendant Osnovation Systems, Inc. may object to Magistrate Judge Cousins' Report and Recommendation to Remand Case Back to Santa Clara County Superior Court (ECF 26). See ECF 28. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C) both grant parties 14 days to object to a magistrate judge's recommendation. Because Plaintiff has cited no support for its argument that this Court has the authority to alter statutorily prescribed deadlines, the Court DENIES Plaintiff's request to shorten the time in which Defendant may object. The Court recognizes Plaintiff's claim of urgency and concern that assets may be dissipated and thus the Court denies this motion without prejudice to Plaintiff's filing a temporary restraining order or other protective order in this Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
